Abstract

Initially we are talking only savings but nowadays when women together busy an exchange their idea and thoughts then they are also talking about learning and savings. It seems that in rural area people especially woman faces so many problems in their daily life it won't be wrong if we say that still woman condition in rural area is not even up to the mark. If they are interested to talk with savings they're having some objective in their hand but in their group so many other matters also when they discuss with each other because women also understand that impotence of saving in their limited life. But knew energy direction and permanent factors it's very necessary nowadays while observing so many years woman's play very important role in self help groups to empower the woman so many ruler area savings especially women help groups try to empower the women. But this is not this much easy because they are facing so many political issues and family issues and society issues also in rural area up to rupees 50 thousands annual earn people. Government given by their panchayath annual opportunity to work together but still there is a various wide scope two approaches properly now what is this help groups prove there existence so that they can empower. Another grow up and the thinking process also increase an enhance so many examples in our society those who are running self help groups specially for woman's in rural area the involving in venial an also included administration concentration and solve the problem in their daily life.

Key Words

Parliament jobs, self help groups, women empowerment.

Introduction

In our nation so many states available like Chhattisgarh where self help groups also constituted to work together while taking advantage of government policies women and children Department self help organization running. Nowadays so many government policies which give advantaged women last so many years there are a number of incidents occur in our society like water problem, like cleanness of society and so many others problems like schools, Angan badee Raksa team facility and safety of women also which women needed. We know what is responsible for that situation but there is a power in their hand of self help groups definitely they try to completed their responsibility in proper manner it's also seems that this groups off cell Brooks women's they conduct the meeting an exchanger idea and thoughts not only for saving they also exchanged their feelings and they share their happiness and sorrows which is also very beneficial to maintain healthy and suitable environment in our surroundings. Equality, law, another social responsibility also they fulfil in a right a correct manner in constitution of India all citizens have equal right to engage the opportunity in our constitution. This rural area also pleases very important to which means the society establishment. Another who are not having good financial condition they also survive and try to prove their self in right direction it also seems that self help groups only possible when this woman's are participated actively. In so many places the walk hard of woman's are incredible in area of education, health, anganwadi where self help groups create so many benchmarks for our society. The role of self help group is to feel comforts level where this women feel good while work.

Literature review

Today we leave in 21st century year cut through competition available and existing still in our nation state like Chhattisgarh here so many woman's those initially struggling but while they deciding to establish their self so they make some group initially with two or four people and they decided some people in same category educating them and they realize that the right of women under which so many works in different places, books, newspaper, Journal and different websites is included here specifically of chhattisgarh.

Role of self help groups

The role of self help groups to motivate woman's and organize them properly. They also appreciate to increase the savings not only in individual level organizational as well. In their group they should maintain proper accounts and take care time to time. There should be meeting and they also give trainings. Their Initial capital which should be arranged with the help of bank. Show many arju's (karm pradhan) also working to facilitate in that manner. Proper utilization of available resources an also use their mental efficiency reason for maintain self help groups.

The main importance is economic empowerment of self help groups to make them connected with each other. I say in this way small sort of savings is appreciated so that their future will become safe and know fulfils all the needs that requirement in together they help the government policies for self help groups to empower the woman's.

A gender inequality we all our family are existing in our nation so Chhattisgarh is not far away from this way because here man dominated nation and woman always try to equal to men but they face so many difficult problem in their daily life so in our society also empowerment of woman is the priority is nowadays.

Political situation also please very important role specially state like Chhattisgarh where self help groups running and completing their tasks they maintain their groups to take advantage of government policies in different departments like children and woman Department self help awareness and so many other government policies so that woman's involvement become increase and initially they help self and they try to help others also we don't forget the importance of political issues in last so many years there are a number of incidents happens where woman's perform their ability and prove while there is a adverse situation in front of all of them ah so many area where a woman plays very good walk specially in school sang and body monitoring of Russian card and defense also nowadays.

In education there are a number of self help groups they show their talent in better and different ways and their group regularly provide the education of accounts training exchange of ideas and thoughts and they increase their personality. They also earn knowledge so they can survive this much competitive environment there are a number of institution those who are giving facility do these sort of self help groups and they also somehow build a character so that they can strongly work can survive in this much competitive world. Definitely they face so many difficulty and problem while they try to survive this much society but they still if they're interested to survive definitely they have to face the problem without any hesitation and they try to work on the situation. And the moment you overcome the situation only then you can easily survive and definitely the patience level which you weren't having it's incredible.

Present situation to make self help groups

Nowadays an number of government policy which provide the facility to walk together to self help groups specially in angling body woman and child Department etc.. Woman's if together and self employment definitely it's good not only for family society as well and the contribution of woman is very important not only in a state or All India different Department swear a woman performed their role very strongly and we cannot forget the importance of woman and you know child Department an angry body Kendra where this woman please very put roll.

Conclusion

In this self help groups nowadays definitely it's difficult to survive, but still they are performing and completing their duties and responsibility in a proper way so that they prove their self in front of others. They are having a number of factors I wish they complete their duty and responsibility. Now what is the people are living in modern society where we're talking about equality but a woman also tried to become equal rights which also given by law. They also properly take care of their families, responsibility of families, kids and their work together while making their groups. As far as state and central government guideline is concerned nowadays central and state jointly work together and also launch so many schemes where these sort of self help groups will be benefited and they become strong enough. They also work not only for society but for self, for their state, for their district, for their know particular community. So that others also learn and try to survive in these self help groups where a woman up to somehow show their strength while managing this sort of activity so it's good enough.

Suggestion

Being a citizen of India, this paper is thinking about the mindset of the woman and they're strong enough. It shows that self help group and they help each other to become survive and become strong and place, their role and duties properly and it's the way of progress and they try to become a strong enough.
